

Saving Isaac Oliver's Lord Herbert of Cherbury

The miniature portrait of Edward Herbert, 1st Baron Herbert Cherbury by Isaac Oliver is one of the most important miniature paintings of the Jacobean age. It had been on display at its historic home, Powis Castle, near Welshpool and has now been purchased for the nation thanks to a funding partnership between the NHMF, Art Fund and the National Trust.

Image

The miniature portrait of Edward Herbert, 1st Baron Herbert of Cherbury by Isaac Oliver

Nation/region

Wales

Grant awarded

£1,500,000

Award date

29/06/2016

Related News

Portrait of Lord Edward Herbert of Cherbury unveiled at Powis Castle

Miniature by Isaac Oliver, purchased by the National Trust with NHMF funding, forms the centrepiece of a new exhibition 'House of Portraits'