

Bowes Cup

Acquisition of a two-handled, covered gold cup made by the German goldsmith Jacob Bodendick, who was active in England between the 1660s and 1680s. A rare and historic example of Restoration goldwork. The cup had been on loan to the museum since 1959.

Nation/region

London

Grant awarded

£115,000

Award date

30/06/1993