

Campagna Landscape by Caspard Dughet

Acquisition of a fine example of the small, cabinet-sized works produced late in the artist's career. It was inspired by the landscape around Rome where Dughet rented horses and indulged his love of hunting and fishing. It was known to have belonged to the architect and landscape designer William Kent.

Nation/region

Yorkshire and the Humber

Grant awarded

£5,000

Award date

26/09/1995