

Castle Coole, Stonework Repairs: First application and acquisition of surrounding land.

Acquisition of land surrounding Castle Coole, County Fermanagh, designed by James Wyatt between 1789 and 1795 for the first Earl of Belmore. The wooded landscaped park slopes down to Lough Coole. In addition this case number includes a first grant towards repair of stonework - phases 4, 5 and 6 - at the Castle itself.

Nation/region

Northern Ireland

Grant awarded

£246,000

Award date

20/05/1981